OFFICE OF THE UNITED STATES TRADE REPRESENTATIVE

[Docket No. 301-99]

Initiation of Investigation Pursuant to Section 302 Concerning Barriers to Access to the Japanese Market for Consumer Photographic Film and Paper; Request for Public Comment

AGENCY: Office of the United States Trade Representative.

ACTION: Notice of initiation of investigation under section 302(a) of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended (19 U.S.C. 2412(a)), and request for written comments.

SUMMARY: The United States Trade Representative (USTR) has initiated an investigation under section 302(a) of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended (the Trade Act), with respect to certain acts, policies and practices of the Government of Japan with respect to barriers to access to the Japanese market for consumer photographic film and paper. The USTR invites written comments from the public on the matters being investigated and the determinations to be made under section 304 of the Trade Act.

DATES: This investigation was initiated on July 2, 1995. Written comments from the public are due on or before noon on August 8, 1995.

ADDRESS: Office of the United States Trade Representative, 600 17th Street NW., Washington, DC 20508.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Byron Sigel, Director for Japanese Affairs, (202) 395-5070, or Irving Williamson, Deputy General Counsel, (202) 395-3432.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: On May 18, 1995, the Eastman Kodak Company filed a petition pursuant to section 302(a) of the Trade Act alleging that certain acts, policies and practices of Japan deny access to the market for photographic film and paper in Japan and are unjustifiable, unreasonable and discriminatory and actionable under section 301. In particular, the petition alleges that Japan maintained formal restrictions on inward investment prior to 1976, in violation of the U.S.-Japan Friendship Commerce and Navigation Treaty and the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development's (OECD) Code of Liberalization of Capital Movements. The petition further alleges that the Government of Japan instituted trade and capital liberalization counter-measures to maintain the effects of investment and trade restrictions after they were formally lifted. The following government-directed liberalization countermeasures are claimed to have affected Kodak: Ministry of International Trade and Industry (MITI) administrative guidance to domestic banks to increase shareholdings, MITI administrative guidance to restructure the distribution system, and MITI intervention with the Japan Fair Trade Commission (JFTC) on behalf of Japan's photographic materials producers. The Japanese toleration of the anticompetitive market structure resulting from the countermeasures is alleged to be inconsistent with Japan's obligations under the OECD's Declaration on International and Multinational Investment and Multinational Enterprises ("National Treatment Instrument"). The foregoing acts are alleged to be justifiable under section 301.

The petition also alleges that MITI and the JFTC have tolerated systematic anticompetitive practices and have actively encouraged and reinforced them and that this toleration is unreasonable and discriminatory under section 301. In particular, the petition alleges that:

(a) Fuji has established a distribution system that utilizes various anticompetitive elements as a mutually reinforcing means to exclude Kodak from the market;

(b) The following Fuji practices are inconsistent with Japan's Antimonopoly Law: (1) Resale price maintenance; (2) vertical non-price restraints such as exclusionary dealing arrangements; (3) dealings on restrictive terms; (4) refusals to deal; and (5) group boycotts;

(c) The JFTC has failed to enforce Japan's Antimonopoly Law (AML) against Fuji's anticompetitive practices;

(d) The JFTC actively strengthens the system by enforcing "Fair Competition Codes" in a manner which discourages discount and promotional sales;

(e) MITI tolerated these anticompetitive practices; and

(f) The toleration is egregious in light of numerous Japanese government policy initiatives and international undertakings to increase AML enforcement.

The petition further alleges that the barriers cited in the petition pose a burden or restriction on U.S. commerce because, by restricting Kodak's access to Japan's photographic film and paper markets, they have caused Kodak to forego export revenue and have created a profit sanctuary in Japan for Fuji which significantly affects the global competition between Kodak and Fuji.

Section 302(a) of the Trade Act authorizes the USTR to initiate an investigation under chapter 1 of Title III of the Trade Act (commonly referred to as "section 301"), in response to the filing of a petition pursuant to section 302(a)(1). Matters actionable under section 301 include, inter alia, acts, policies, and practices of a foreign country that are unjustifiable, unreasonable or discriminatory and burden or restrict U.S. commerce. An act, policy or practice is unjustifiable if it is in violation of, or inconsistent with, the international legal rights of the United States. An act, policy or practice is unreasonable if the act, policy or practice, while not necessarily in violation of, or inconsistent with, the international legal rights of the United States, is otherwise unfair or inequitable. Unreasonable acts, policies or practices include, inter alia, denial of fair and equitable market opportunities, including the toleration by a foreign government of systematic anticompetitive activities by enterprises or among enterprises in the foreign country that have the effect of restricting, on a basis that is inconsistent with commercial considerations, access of United States goods or services to a foreign market.

On July 2, 1995, the USTR determined that an investigation should be initiated to determine whether certain acts, policies or practices of the Government of Japan with respect to access to the Japanese market for consumer photographic film and paper are actionable under section 301.

Consultations

Pursuant to section 303(a) of the Trade Act, the USTR has requested consultations with the Government of Japan concerning the issues under investigation. USTR will seek information and advice from the appropriate representatives provided for under section 135 of the Trade Act in preparing the U.S. presentations for such consultations.

Public Comment: Requirements for Submissions

Interested persons are invited to submit written comments concerning the issues raised in the petition and any other submissions to USTR in this investigation. In particular, comments are invited regarding (i) the acts, policies and practices of the Government of Japan that are the subject of this investigation; (ii) the amount of burden or restriction on U.S. commerce caused by these acts, policies and practices; (iii) the determinations required under section 304 of the Trade Act; and (iv) appropriate action under section 301 which could be taken in response.

Comments must be filed in accordance with the requirements set forth in 15 CFR 2006.8(b) (55 FR 20593) and are due no later than noon on Tuesday, August 8, 1995. Comments must be in English and provided in twenty copies to: Sybia Harrison, Staff Assistant to the section 301 Committee, Room 223, Office of the United States Trade Representative, 600 17th Street, NW., Washington, DC 20508.

Comments will be placed in a file (Docket 301-99) open to public inspection pursuant to 15 CFR 2006.13, except confidential business information exempt from public inspection in accordance with 15 CFR 2006.15. Confidential business information submitted in accordance with 15 CFR 2006.15 must be clearly marked "BUSINESS CONFIDENTIAL" in a contrasting color ink at the top of each page on each of 20 copies, and must be accompanied by a nonconfidential summary of the confidential information. The nonconfidential summary shall be placed in the file that is open to public inspection.
